Comprehensive Solutions For Compliance

Your Event is Covered

DEAR ORGANISER

Holding an event in Australia is about creating a space of enjoyment, ideality, and impressiveness.

However, it also needs to be developed with safety in mind. A qualified safety officer helps to reduce risk and ensure the premium safety of attendees.

Reducing your workload and resource input while ensuring a seamless event is the critical focus of Essential EMES. Our state of the art digital technology backed with over three decades of high-end safety specialization means we have you covered.

Customised compliance is our profession, and we look forward to working with you to ensure your day runs smoothly.

Your Package Includes

EMES founder Bob Barry spent more than 35 years as a career firefighter, as Assistant Chief of the CFA and was awarded the National Emergency Medal recognizing service to others through the brutal 2009 Victorian fires. Managing over 262 Fire Brigades, he is no stranger to the importance of process and implementation.

Bob and the team at EMES have an eye for detail and structure that only exists with decades of experience. Who better to trust the safety of your event than one of Australia's most experienced safety advisors?
